Agricultural productivity - Loddon Mallee North

Strategies

Support emerging agribusinesses and location clusters, including intensive animal industries. Protect and maintain productive irrigation assets necessary to help grow the region as an important food bowl for domestic and international exports.