Protection of biodiversity

Strategies
Retain areas of existing remnant vegetation, wetlands and streamlines that provide movement corridors and habitat for wildlife.
Encourage revegetation of land with plants indigenous to French Island as part of development.