

12.01-1L

16/01/2020
C102gelg

Protection of biodiversity

Strategies

Encourage revegetation on private land to be undertaken with locally indigenous species.

Retain eucalypt trees, in particular Red Gum, Brown Stringybark, and Desert Stringybark, as a significant environmental and landscape asset which contributes to the survival of the endangered red-tailed black cockatoo.