Use of land

Before a sensitive use commences (residential use, child care centre or pre-school centre) or before the construction or carrying out of buildings and works in association with a sensitive use commences, either:

- A certificate of environmental audit must be issued for the land in accordance with Part 1XD of the Environment Protection Act 1970, or
- An environmental auditor appointed under the Environment Protection Act 1970 must make a statement in accordance with Part 1XD of that Act that the environmental conditions of the land are suitable for the sensitive use.

Application requirements

An application to use land must be accompanied by the following information:

- The purpose of the use and the types of activities that will be carried out.
- The likely effects on the operation of the Australian Synchrotron, including vibration, noise and traffic.

Decision guidelines

Before deciding on an application to use land, the responsible authority must consider, as appropriate:

- The effect that the proposed use may have on existing uses.
- The effect of additional traffic on the operation, convenience and efficiency of existing roads.
- The views of the Monash City Council.

All car parking areas must be screened from Blackburn Road and Wellington Road.

Rubbish enclosures and service areas must be screened from public view.

Application requirements

An application to construct a building or construct or carry out works must be accompanied by the following information, as appropriate:

- A plan drawn to scale which shows:
 - The boundaries and dimensions of the site.
 - The relationship to natural ground level expressed as Relative Levels to AHD (Australian Height Datum) of the proposed building height, floor to ceiling and finished floor levels to all structures.
 - Adjoining roads and site access arrangements.
 - The site layout showing the location of all buildings and car parking areas, driveways and internal roads, loading and storage areas, and setback distances from site boundaries and road frontages.
 - The use of the proposed buildings and works and typical floor plans.
- Elevation drawings.
- A schedule of external colours, materials and finishes.
- Details of all drainage works, driveways, car parking and loading and waste storage and collection areas.

MONASH PLANNING SCHEME

- Details of the location and design of any proposed vehicle access to Blackburn Road and Wellington Road.
- A landscape plan including details about plant species, paving, lighting and fencing.
- The location and details of all external lighting to the building and car parking areas.
- A site analysis and urban context report if the height of any building or structure exceeds 16 metres above ground level.

Decision guidelines

Before deciding on an application to construct a building or construct or carry out works, the responsible authority must consider, as appropriate:

- The interface with adjoining land.
- The location and type of access to the site.
- The provision of car parking.
- The appearance and height of the building and the site analysis and urban context report.
- The landscape plan, in particular the treatment of the setbacks to Blackburn Road and Wellington Road and the screening of car parking areas.
