

15.01-4L

19/06/2020
C193moon

A healthy city

Strategies

Design multi-storey residential and mixed use development to encourage opportunities for social interaction between public and private areas, spaces and facilities.

Support and facilitate community gardens, urban agriculture or other uses and development that can accommodate community food assets.