

SWAN HILL PLANNING SCHEME

- Developments on land that are will be reclaimed as a result of decommissioning of the Goulburn-Murray Water channel infrastructure. Such development will require further investigation undertaken by suitably qualified persons to demonstrate the suitability of the land to be used and developed for residential and other purposes to the satisfaction of the responsible authority.
- Demonstration of how any significant environmental features can be protected.